

Information Regarding Marriage Intensive Services

The marriage relationship is unique in many ways. So also, is the type of assistance necessary to adequately match the needs of those with significant marriage issues. A Marriage Intensive is designed to address these unique needs.

We use two Christian Conciliators in Marriage Intensives, a male and a female. Marriage Intensives always involve both the husband and the wife. We believe in biblical counseling and conciliation. Conciliation is a process of providing Biblical counsel regarding specific conflict issues, not licensed or professional counseling.

The immediate goal of biblical counseling is to help people gain insight into their situation and life in light of God's Word and His purposes. In order to address root problems, we help husbands and wives identify and attend to their heart issues in a safe and supportive environment.

Redemptive counsel may include both words of compassion and loving confrontation in an atmosphere of trust, encouragement, and respect. The ultimate goal of biblical counseling is to help others grow in faith, knowledge, and love for Jesus Christ as He increasingly transforms them into His likeness.

Because we believe the Bible is the Word of God concerning faith and life, the principles used in biblical counseling are based on Scripture. We are committed to reflect the character and grace of Jesus Christ in all we do. Foundational is our belief that God has created all mankind in His image and for His glory.

We find information gained through medical sources, social science research and psychology often helpful in identifying problems and appropriate interventions. However, all interventions must meet the criteria of biblical faithfulness.

We are committed to do everything possible to guard any information spouses entrust to us. It is important to recognize, however, that we are unable to guarantee confidentiality, even when we maintain the strictest confidence, due to the nature of third-party involvement. There are times when we are legally required and/or biblically obligated to share information with others.

Such exceptions to confidentiality include, but are not limited to, situations where:

- We are informed of alleged or suspected child or elder abuse or neglect committed by or experienced by the client or by a specifically identified individual;
- The client is a perceived threat to themselves or others;
- The conciliator is subpoenaed and ordered by a judge to testify or release client information;
- A parent or legal guardian of an individual under the age of 18 requests information about the child; and/or
- We discern the need to discuss a party's situation with their denominational and/or churches' governing elders/pastors for the purposes of providing assistance.

In these situations, we make our best effort to help our clients act according to what we understand to be in their best interests. Where possible, we attempt to discuss the situation with our clients and obtain informed consent to release information before any action is taken. We may also confidentially consult with appropriate professional colleagues to seek greater wisdom in order to provide our clients with the best possible counsel.

If we suspect that there may be a medical component to a client's problem, we may request an evaluation by their personal physician or a specialist. In some situations, counseling may be contingent upon this medical evaluation. Because a person's physical body and spirit are intricately connected, it is unwise to neglect one or the other in the process of counseling.

Guidelines for the conciliation include:

- If we (husband and wife) are not benefiting from this Intensive, or if we have failed to establish a strong working relationship, the conciliators will provide us with one or more referrals that may better serve our needs.
- We are free to leave the Intensive at any time.
- If we choose to terminate the intensive prior to the expected termination date agreed upon, we commit to discuss this decision with the conciliators in advance of our actual termination.
- We acknowledge that we are not receiving licensed professional counseling from the conciliators, even though one or more may have a counseling background or experience.

The Intensive work will include the following. The estimate of fees and costs is attached.

- Preparation coaching and assignment of preparation work
- 3-5 days Intensive with 2 conciliators (actual length is determined after initial intake to accommodate the need)

6. If you cancel a scheduled visit at least six weeks prior to the visit, you will be reimbursed for the full amount minus the $1,000 fee for Case Administration and document preparation.
7. Any cancellation less than six weeks prior to a visit will result in Crossroads and its conciliators incurring costs and time that cannot be reimbursed. 10. Post Marriage Intensive Follow-Up. Upon completion of your Marriage Intensive, we often recommend that you receive follow up services with CRG. However, because we understand that part of a Marriage Intensive process often involves planning a follow up as part of the agreement, we do not want you to feel any undue pressure about continuing with CRG for services after the Marriage Intensive sessions. We invite you to take the freedom you need to develop follow up plans within the Intensive that will benefit you and encourage you to use local resources, especially your church. There is no assumption, or need for, continuation of services with CRG other than the follow-up check-in call and assistance to mentors. Of course, you are able to contact us to initiate any desired post Marriage Intensive services.
